Choral Connections Weekend - Jake Runestad

As we close our 21st season, Vocális is joined by one of America's choral greats, Jake Runestad. Jake's visceral music and charismatic personality have fostered a busy schedule of commissions, residencies, and workshops, enabling him to be one of the youngest full-time composers in the world. His works have been performed world-wide by such groups as VOCES8, Seraphic Fire, and Conspirare.

Community Sing with Jake Runestad

Meet the composer as he conducts you through a rehearsal of his music. All in the community are invited, and music will be provided. Bring your voice, or just sit and listen. Join us for an inspiring evening of community and song. Free Admission.
